

Majesty

Hayli Lindgren

I dedicate my life, to the service of a king An open book to write, the perfect offering To bring joy to my father, joy to my friend Let us celebrate together, the wonder of His name.

singing, majesty, fill this place with your majesty, fill this place with your love majesty, I am desperate for you majesty, let your will be done its you and you alone, who captivates my heart but all the world holds deep, Will but fall apart your word is my anchor, your word is my strength it will pull me through forever, until the very end
