

Testimony

Hayli Lindgren

I was lost and afraid and you found me
Your glory broke through the clouds
And I knew it was time to step in,
Not hold back from this life,
That you were giving me.

Now I'm here overwhelmed by your goodness,
Finally loved, finally free,
And I'm not looking back but I'm fixing my eyes on the prize,
That you've got waiting for me.

You are my healer
You are my saviour
My only redeemer
And you fought for my then
and you'll fight for me now

Your my life, your my dream, my purpose
Tell the world all I've seen
That the blind man can see
And the lepers are healed in your name
The name of Jesus

You are my healer
You are my saviour
My only redeemer
And you fought for me then
And you'll fight for me now.

I am finally home,
Your arms have bought me close,
And I will worship you with the angels
Your love has overcome
And this life is now my song
I can testify in your presence

You are my healer
You are my saviour
My only redeemer
And you fought for me then
And you'll fight for me now.
